2017-2018 GCAC AWANA Clubs Guidelines

To better serve your child and for his/her safety, Awana will start administrating the following guidelines in the coming club year. Please make sure that you and your child read through and understand all the information before signing. Then fill out the registration forms. You may talk to the registration staff or commanders, if you have any question.

Registration Guideline:

1. Every field in a registration form must be filled.
2. Each class will have limited space. Children who register after the class space is filled will be put on waiting list and called upon later availability.
3. Parent/s must be serving in the Awana during the Awana season
4. Registration priority is given by the following tiers and is first-come-first-serve.
 - I. Current year certified AWANA teachers and helper's children
 - II. Regular GCAC attendants
 - III. Regular Friday night fellowship attendants

Attendance Guidelines

Excellent attendance shows your child's commitment to Awana. Please make sure to take your child to Awana every club night.

1. Every child must be sign-in and sign-out by a parent/guardian.
2. If your child cannot attend a session, please notify his/her club leaders ASAP and state the reason. Therefore, it will not be counted as an unexcused absence.
3. If your child has four consecutive unexcused absences or constantly late to the class, it shows that he/she does not commit to the program. He/She will be asked to leave for the rest of school year until next year. A student from the waiting list will be invited to join.

Recite Bible Verses Guidelines

Memorizing Bible verses is an essential component of the AWANA program. Please help your child to memorize and practice their Bible verses at home.

1. At least one verse per week, no more than two per week.
2. If a clubber does not memorize any verse in two consecutive weeks – a reminder will be sent to parents for possible suspension.
3. If a clubber does not memorize any verse in three consecutive weeks –the clubber will be suspend for one club night.
4. If a clubber still does not memorize any verse upon his/her return, then it shows the clubber is not ready for the program. Therefore, the clubber will be asked to leave for the rest of school year until next year. A student from the waiting list will be invited to join.

Club Behavior Guidelines

To train your child as a boy/girl of God, positive behaviors such as good sportsmanship, respecting others, and so on, will be awarded by points. However, inappropriate behaviors will have consequences and may result in suspension or even leaving Awana club.

1. Inappropriate behaviors are:
 - a. Distract others
 - b. Bully others physically or verbally
 - c. Disrespect or disobey authority
 - d. Use cursing words
 - e. Use inappropriate language
2. Consequences of inappropriate behaviors:
 - a. Three notices will be administrated if inappropriate behaviors occur during a club night
 1. First notice – The clubber will receive verbal warning from Club leader. He/she will lose 15 minutes game time.
 2. Second notice – The clubber will have conference with Club director. He/she will lose entire game time or timeout from the activity.
 3. Third notice – The clubber will have conference with club leader, director and parent. He/she will be suspended for the following club night.
 - b. If the clubber returns with the same inappropriate behavior, he/she will be asked to leave for the rest of school year. A student from the waiting list will be invited to join.

I have read and understood all the above information, my child/ren and I are willing to comply with all the guidelines.
